EXPERIENCE

Global Marketing & Communications Intern, Burson, New York, NY

June 2026 – Present

- Coordinated global marketing logistics for Burson's executive delegation at the Cannes Lions International Festival of Creativity. Managed VIP scheduling, panel event coordination, branded merchandise, and public-facing digital communications.
- Assisted the Digital & Social team by drafting copy for Burson's global social channels (LinkedIn 423K, Instagram 12K) and maintaining and updating Burson's global website.
- Project managed the Burson Yearbook alongside the Internal Communications and People teams.

Marketing & Communications Associate, Silverstein Properties, New York, NY

May – August 2024, 2025

- Led efforts to support The Avenir, a NYC casino license bid. Oversaw the design, production, and placement of collateral materials, including email marketing, digital and print ads, flyers, and a website. Organized and staffed a month-long resident engagement initiative at Silverstein's residential buildings. Collaborated with the marketing team to execute a summer BBQ, which over 600 community members attended as a part of a community outreach campaign. Supported the CMO with public affairs strategy and community-facing/elected official meetings. Translated survey data into actionable insights that shaped messaging.
- Project managed an internal publication featuring the best locations throughout the World Trade Center (WTC) commercial portfolio and public spaces.
- Wrote, directed, and produced a short-form video series for the WTC social channels (IG 170K, Facebook 1M+, LinkedIn 46K) to promote a campus-wide food festival. Contributed to @wtc's most popular video to date, with 31K+ likes.
